Summary

I am a front-end web developer who is passionate about building great things that have a positive impact in people's lives.

Experience

Stumpvus - Aug 2019 - Feb 2020

As a small business manager I acquired experience in management, dealing with customers, organizational skills and problem solving.

Freelancer Designer & Translator

As a freelancer I would design social media posts and ads using canva and I also was a translator from portuguese to english and vice-versa. Nowadays I have not been freelancing as a designer since I now focus 100% on web development.
